Remembering Mrs. Meade

Kelli Meade, Vinal School Teacher for over 20 years

"Mrs. Meade was strong, gentle, fierce and compassionate. She believed that we are all capable of pushing the limits. Anyone that had Mrs. Meade felt special, that was her gift to us. She nicknamed me "Gritty" in fourth grade and I will always continue to live up to it! Rest in Peace, Mrs. Meade and thank you for all the hearts you touched."

Sidrah Fawzi

Dearest Sadourah, Congratulations!

To this day and forever more, we can recall the day we brought you home after your birth. We thought, are we good enough to be her parents, have we read enough books, did we seek enough advice, why is the hospital allowing us to leave with her? We soon realized our anxieties were for not, because you came with your own unique instructions manual. Sadourah, you are so amazing, so beautiful, so kind, so smart, so independent, so much more than we could have ever wished for in a daughter. Your aunts gave you that nickname, Sadourah, and it stuck because to us it sounds like "I love you." You really are the love of our lives. Your accomplishments in life have been nothing short of amazing! We are excited about your future and know this is only the beginning. Sure we stumbled, sure we made mistakes, but we want you to never forget, everyday from the day you entered our lives, our hearts have been overwhelmed with love and joy. You are and will always be much more than enough for us.

Love, Mom & Dad
